

MIME Solutions – Training Courses

Training Course	Description	Who should attend
D. OPERATIONAL MANAGEMENT
D.1 Supply Chain Management - Manufacturing	Introduction to the concepts of business excellence and lean processes within a production or processing environment.	Personnel involved in day to day decision making with an impact on operational and financial performance.
D.2 Profit and Loss Accounts	Practical tools for the management and control of business unit finances.	Business unit managers
D.3 Budget Management	Development, control, forecasting and management of budgets including the concepts of contingency and risk management.	Personnel involved in financial planning and control.
D.4 Completion of Documentation within Regulated Industries	Reinforcement of the correct attitudes towards the completion of lab and production documentation within the regulated industries.	Production and lab personnel, engineers and scientist with a responsibility for the completion and approval of cGMP and non cGMP documentation within the regulated industries.
D.5 Compliance	Introduction to the core concepts for the operation of a compliant system within the regulated industries.	All personnel involved in the supply chain of controlled or regulated production.
D.6 An Introduction to GMP Review	Introduction of a risk based approach to the review of either designs or actual operational facilities	All personnel involved in the supply chain of controlled or regulated production.
D.7 An Introduction to Validation	Introduction to the principles of validation, e.g. validation master planning (VMP), installation qualification (IQ), etc.	All personnel involved in the supply chain of controlled or regulated production.